

Tony and Ray Find Their Feet

RUDKIN & HICKS

silent comedy, slapstick & eccentric dance friendship, rivalry, work tools & tomfoolery

Tony and Ray Find Their Feet

an outdoors & indoors show of physical comedy & eccentric dance

RUDKIN & HICKS

Directed by Tom Roden of New Art Club

Two workers distracted by friendship, rivalry, work tools, tomfoolery and dance a silent comedy performed to music and sound effects

'blinkin' wonderful...! bloody loved it. So gentle, warm, appealing, and funny'

Catherine Buzz Busby : Production Manager Sensation Seekers Stage Glastonbury festival

ENVIRONMENTALLY CONSIDERATE : created from a sustainable standpoint props and costumes made from reused and recycled objects nominal consumables used in the show • transportable by train

WORKSHOPS AVAILABLE: dancing for fun & making a simple routine, tailored for age groups

TECH : self-contained sound system • portable between sites for outdoors events adptable to different locations • minimum 'stage' space 4 metres wide by 2 metres deep show time adaptable 10 to 30 minutes

'Such a wonderful show'

Ian Morley – Producer Freedom Festival

NATIONAL CENTRE FOR OUT THERE
ARTS

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

unexpected, uplifting, undeniably funny & surprisingly light on its feet